

That Speech Lady: Fees

Fees have been set using the guidelines from the Association of Speech and Language Therapists in Independent Practice (ASLTIP). Please be aware 'we', 'us' and 'our' refers to That Speech Lady.

All fees include the following:

- Administration time such as short phone calls, casenote writing and planning.
- If applicable, any petrol cost and travelling time if the appointment is within a 10-mile radius from That Speech Lady's base address (we are based in Southwater, West Sussex). Please refer to the website <https://www.thatsspeechlady.co.uk> for approximate locations.

Below are examples of packages available. If there is something else you require, please do not hesitate to get in touch with us: lauren@thatsspeechlady.co.uk, 07397296183.

Initial Assessment Screen: £150

What this includes:

- We will see your child in a one to one setting for 60 minutes.
- The assessment will contain one or more of the following: completing a case history, formal assessment, informal assessment, observation, questionnaires, discussions, liaison with you and/or with other professionals.
- The type of assessment used will be different for each person. Each person is unique and we will use our professional judgement to ensure the most effective assessment method is used.
- You will receive a report (1 hour of report writing time is included) detailing your child's strengths and difficulties. Information about the assessment and findings will be included alongside personalised targets and strategies if they are required.
- Reports are usually sent out within 14 days after the assessment.

Full Initial Assessment: £300

What this includes:

- We will see your child in a one to one setting for 120 minutes.
- The assessment will contain one or more of the following: completing a case history, formal assessment, informal assessment, observation, questionnaires, discussions, liaison with you and/or with other professionals.
- The type of assessment used will be different for each person. Each person is unique and we will use our professional judgement to ensure the most effective assessment method is used.
- You will receive a report (2 hour of report writing time is included) detailing your child's strengths and difficulties. Information about the assessment and findings will be included alongside personalised targets and strategies if they are required.
- Reports are usually sent out within 14 days after the assessment.

Review Appointment

Option 1: £130 for the review and a written report

Option 2: £100 for the review and a brief written summary

What this includes:

- We will see your child in a one to one setting for 60 minutes.
- The assessment will contain one or more of the following: completing a case history, formal assessment, informal assessment, observation, questionnaires, discussions, liaison with you and/or with other professionals.
- The type of assessment used will be different for each person. Each person is unique and we will use our professional judgement to ensure the most effective assessment method is used.
- If you choose to have the written report (Option 1: £130 in total) you will receive a report detailing your child's strengths and difficulties (1 hour of report writing time). Information about the assessment and findings will be included alongside personalised targets and strategies if they are required. Details about your child's progress will be included within the report.
- Reports are usually sent out within 14 days after the assessment.
- If you choose to have a brief written summary (Option 2: £100 in total) this will be sent to you via email and is usually sent within 14 days of the appointment. You will not receive a written report.

Therapy sessions: £75 per session

What this includes:

- After an assessment or review appointment, we may recommend therapy sessions. The number of therapy sessions will be discussed and agreed with you.
- A therapy session lasts for 45 minutes and will involve working on agreed aims and/or targets.
- Most therapy sessions will require a family or staff member to continue working on activities so your child can make maximum progress and generalise learnt skills into other settings. We will let you know if a family or staff member need to attend therapy sessions.

Creating a programme: £75

- After an assessment or a review appointment, we may recommend a programme is created.
- A programme will usually include targets, activity ideas and resources specifically tailored to what your child needs.
- It is often recommended programmes are worked on at home and in your child's educational setting.

Demonstration sessions: £75 per session

- Some programmes may require a demonstration so educational staff or parents can fully understand what they have to do and how to present activities.
- The demonstration session requires your child to be present and the family or staff member who will be working with your child.
- A demonstration session lasts for 45 minutes.

Advice sessions: £50 per session

What this includes:

- A 30-minute conversation with you by telephone or online.
- The child is not usually present during these sessions. You may wish to send a short video clip of the child before the session if you think it would be helpful.
- You will receive a short, written summary via email detailing the advice and recommendations that were provided in the advice session.

Meetings: £75 per hour

- That Speech Lady is available to attend meetings with you and other professionals working with your child.
- We can discuss our involvement with your child and any reports or programmes we have written. We can also discuss the impact of your child's speech, language and communication difficulties.
- The duration of the meeting must be agreed in advance.

Educational Contracts

- That Speech Lady is available to work in educational settings such as nurseries and schools on a regular basis (for example weekly or monthly).
- Please contact us directly to discuss prices as this will be tailored to the service you require. As a guide, we charge £75 per hour.
